

Tomb no. GB 50 (tomb of Petosiris)

	 Plan Hanover Mission
Date of construction	Around 300 BC; reuse since the late Ptolemaic period with new constructions of mud brick in the west, east and south
Names of the deceased	Petosiris, Isonis and priest of Thoth
Construction material	Local limestone ('Muschelkalk')
Number of burials	1st period: at least 3; 2nd period: unknown
Number of floors	1
Number of rooms	2 plus later additions
Number of niches	None
Decoration	Façade and interior rooms are covered with Graeco-Egyptian and Egyptian reliefs

Tomb no. GB 50 (tomb of Petosiris)

Inscriptions	Egyptian hieroglyphs with name and biography of Petosiris; Greek graffiti at the outside walls
Bibliography	G. Lefebvre, Le tombeau des Petosiris I (Kairo 1924). II (Kairo 1923); K. Lembke in: K. Lembke – S. Prell (Hrsg.), Die Petosiris-Nekropole von Tuna el-Gebel Bd. I. Tuna el Gebel Bd. 6 (Vaterstetten 2015) 211-215 (reuse)